COURSE INFORMATION

This qualification reflects the role of entry level community services workers who support individuals through the provision of person-centred services. Work may include day-to-day support of individuals in community settings or support the implementation of specific community-based programs.

This qualification is typically delivered over a minimum duration of 18 weeks.

Upon completion of this qualification, students are eligible to apply for roles such as:

- Welfare/Community Support Worker
- Youth Support Worker
- Juvenile Justice Officer

"My trainer Sonia was fantastic. She supported me in so many areas, not only in the course but provided options and discussions. She made it so easy to speak our mind on how we were feeling and to express ourselves in so many areas. She provided us with so much more information that will further our knowledge in the Community Services industry. Thank you so much Sonia".
