COURSE INFORMATION

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments.

This qualification is typically delivered over a minimum duration of 18 months in the form of a traineeship.

Upon completion of this qualification, students are eligible to apply for roles such as:

- Community Program Coordinator
- Respite Care Worker
- Residential Care Officer

Delivery locations will vary based on the student's employment location.

"I have noticed a positive change in my approach towards Disability, thanks to my trainer Loveleen. She has done an amazing job and helped me in my placement. This qualification has increased my chance at securing a job, and my placement hosts have discussed ongoing employment with me".
